EXAMINER'S AMENDMENT

1. This application is in condition for allowance except for the presence of claims 8-36 to an invention non-elected without traverse. Accordingly, claims 8-36 been cancelled.

2. An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

Authorization for this examiner's amendment was given in a telephone interview with Marten Marshall on 2/8/06.

The application has been amended as follows:

In claim 37, lines 3-4, "the objects" has been replaced with --a first object from the first single sided picture and a second object from the second single sided picture--.

The above change has been made to provide proper antecedent basis for the terms "the objects," "first object" and "second object" in the claims.

In claim 37, the last line, "said" has been replaced with --each respective--.

The above change has been made to remove the term, "said object" which was ambiguous since it was not clear to which particular object was being recited.

Claim 38 has been cancelled.

The above change has been made to remove a claim of improper form. This claim has been replaced by the new claims listed below.

Art Unit: 2854

In claim 39, line 2, "consists of" has been replaced with --comprising--.

In claim 40, line 2, "consists of" has been replaced with --comprising--.

The above changes have been made to replace the closed terminology "consisting of" with the open terminology, --comprising--, thus broadening the scope of the claim to the advantage of applicant. Regarding this change, see MPEP 2111.03 [R-3]:

2111.03 [R-3] Transitional Phrases

The transitional phrases "comprising", "consisting essentially of" and "consisting of" define the scope of a claim with respect to what unrecited additional components or steps, if any, are excluded from the scope of the claim. The transitional term "comprising", which is synonymous with "including," "containing," or "characterized by," is inclusive or open-ended and does not exclude additional, unrecited elements or method steps. . .

. . . The transitional phrase "consisting of" excludes any element, step, or ingredient not specified in the claim. In re Gray, 53 F.2d 520, 11 USPQ 255 (CCPA 1931); Ex parte Davis, 80 USPQ 448, 450 (Bd. App. 1948) ("consisting of" defined as "closing the claim to the inclusion of materials other than those recited except for impurities ordinarily associated therewith."). But see Norian Corp. v. Stryker Corp., 363 F.3d 1321, 1331-32, 70 USPQ2d 1508, 1516 (Fed. Cir. 2004). . .

--Claim 41. A method for creating one 2-sided picture from a first single sided picture and a second single sided picture, comprising the steps of:

- a. removing the backgrounds from both said single sided pictures leaving just a first object from the first single sided picture and a second object from the second single sided picture to be printed, and
- b. modifying the shapes of one or both said objects, that have had said backgrounds removed, in order to make said objects congruent, such that said shape modifications result in minimal distortion of the images, and
- c. printing said first object onto a transparent medium, and

d. printing said second object over said first object such that said second object completely covers said first object but does not extend beyond the edges of said first object, whereby the resultant 2-sided image shows each respective object from 2 opposite sides.

Claim 42. The method of claim 41 further stipulating that said transparent medium comprises decal material.

Claim 43. The method of claim 41 further stipulating that said transparent medium comprises a transparent rigid material suitable for physically cutting.--

The above claims have been added to provide claim protection intended by applicant in the previous version of the claims but was not properly recited in that previous version.
